

Skype for my Grandstream??

Skype Client

What is Skype Client?

Skype is software that enables the world's conversations, it allows you to make free video and voice calls, send instant messages and share files with other Skype users.

What do I need to use Skype Client on my Grandstream device?

- A Grandstream GXV3140 IP Multimedia phone
- A Skype Desktop Free Account
- An Internet connection (Broadband recommended)

What Can I do with my Grandstream on Skype?

Some of the Features:

- Free Skype and video calling
- Call phones and mobiles*
- Caller ID
- Instant messaging
- Buy Credit directly to call phone.

*credit needed

Skype for Business

What is Skype for Business?

Skype for business is a solution to provide a SIP Trunk to your office. No matter the size of your business, you can benefit from a range of affordable communication solutions.

What do I need to use Skype for Business on my Grandstream device?

- A Grandstream SIP Client, like the GXE502x or the GXW400x / GXW4024
- A Skype for Business SIP Account
- An Internet connection (Broadband recommended)

What Can I do with my Grandstream on Skype?

Some of the Features:

- Free Inbound Calls to your office **
- Call phones and mobiles
- Caller ID
- Enhance the PBX System
- Activate voicemail and call forwarding
- Conference Calls

**DID required.

